Experience the city of Edinburgh and tour Macbeth country and the Highlands. We will explore and compare Shakespeare's imagined Scotland and the historical Scotland of the 11th century ruler known as the Red King. We could not pick a better place to explore the dramaturgy of Macbeth and its historical facts, fictions, and superstitions.

Student Quote:
"From the moment we arrived in Scotland, I was surrounded by new languages, accents, and cultures. Lines were changed to queues, and fries were chips and chips were crisps. It was refreshing to become a part of something so new, yet so old at the same time."
